Unveiling the Armory Show's Unusual Centerpiece

KONRAD FIEDLER

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS: A GARBAGE TRUCK Artist Mierle Ukeles's new work 'The Social Mirror,' a 12-ton Department of Sanitation garbage truck covered with mirrors, was installed yesterday at Pier 94, where it will serve as the centerpiece to the Armory Show. The annual contemporary art fair opens next Thursday and is expected to draw thousands of visitors to view art for sale by about 150 international galleries.
