Must-See Art at the Armory Show

By Alexandra Cheney

The Armory Show features 274 contemporary and modern art galleries at Piers 92 and 94 in New York.

Spanning 31 countries, the works for sale include Robert Rauschenberg's rarely-seen transfer drawings, a 24-foot by 36-foot site-specific neon fence by Ivan Navarro and 13 trees by Sam Van Aken that have been grafted to each bear 40 different kinds of fruit.

Navigating the space, not to mention the crowds, is a task. Our colleagues at WSJ's Speakeasy's blog have assembled a must-see list of paintings, installations and mixed media. Click here to launch the guide.
